

POLICE AND CORONER DEFIED BY VERMILYA

Mrs. Louise Vermilya today refused to attend the coroner's inquest over the body of Policeman Arthur Bissonette, with whose murder she is charged.

And she made that stick, too, by having physicians pronounce her too weak to be taken to the inquest, which was to have been held at the Harrison street station.

As a result the inquest has been postponed until November 27, at 10 a. m.

"I shouldn't have gone anyway," said Mrs. Vermilya after the physicians had pronounced her too ill to be moved. "The coroner can't make me attend the inquest if I don't want to, and that's all there is to it."

Coroner Hoffman says that were Mrs. Vermilya in good physical health, he would demonstrate to her that he could make her attend the inquest, but was forced to throw up his hands at the report of Drs. Joseph Springer and Thomas A. Hogan.

The physicians said that moving Mrs. Vermilya might be dangerous.

"She is suffering from a valvular disease of the heart as well as a hemorrhage of the heart that always appears in arsenical poisoning. She might be none the worse for moving, and then again, she might be a great deal the worse."

—o—o—
Walls of criminal court building are in danger of collapse.

ADMIRAL SURRENDERS TO THE REBELS

(Copyright, 1911, by Underwood & Underwood.)

Admiral Sah.

Thirteen vessels of the imperial Chinese fleet surrendered to the revolutionists at Shanghai, Nov. 14. Admiral Sah gave up because of lack of coal and munitions. He is now in hiding.

LATE NEWS

Mrs. Eva L. Eno and Miss Ada L. Sanford, twins, 83 years old, blew out gas in N. Y. hotel. First visit to city. The end.

Joseph Lazarus, N. Y., lost pocketbook containing $21,000. Waiter, who didn't know what was in it, returned it. He took $500 reward. But where did Joseph get all that pocket money?